

Phifer family Art and History Tours

Saturday, April 18, 2015

See Robert Phifer's art collection and then take a tour through the Phifer family's history. Tours begin at 10:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m. at the Historic Cabarrus County Courthouse, where 14 original pieces of art are on loan from the North Carolina Museum of Art in the Concord Museum. The Cabarrus Arts Council will hold continuous screenings of Judge Clarence Horton's Historical Moments: The Phifer Family in the Davis Theatre. The tour continues to three local cemeteries with connections to the Phifer Family. Experts will narrate tours through Oakwood Cemetery, Phifer Cemetery, and Memorial Garden. Transportation will be provided to the first 15 participants on each tour, others may use their own vehicles to travel.

The entire tour will take approximately three hours, returning to the Historic Courthouse. For more information, contact the Historic Cabarrus Association at 704-920-2465, or visit bit.ly/PhiferArtHistory2015.
